Content

Adobe Flash is a designers dream. It's a multimedia authoring program designed to produce web content, but it can be used for a wide variety of creative purposes: from interactive web site design, to character animation and video creation. You don't need to be a programmer to learn Flash, but it does have its own programming language, Action Script. You can use Flash's in built animation tools along with Action Script to create content rich in depth and interactivity.

Teaching methodologies

Teaching methodologies include:

- Studio labs
- Practical demonstrations
- Opportunities for group work

Assessment

The course does not attract a formal assessment, however student's progress is tracked by means of ongoing lab work.
