

Prod	Scene	Take
Roll
Director
Camera
Date	Day/Night	Sync/Mos

Give the gift of acting

LIGHTS! CAMERA! ACTING!

We all have to act in life. It could be making a presentation at work, speaking in front of a group of colleagues, or appearing in a movie, writes Editor Kevin Flanagan.

"I recently attended a GET INTO FILM & TV Acting course with renowned casting agent Gillian Reynolds, and I learnt that acting in a movie is quite a similar experience to speaking in front of your work colleagues! Both are stressful and require steely nerves. And both require the knowledge to do it well!

This course provides you with the skills and confidence to stand up in front of anyone – anywhere! – from acting in front of the camera to presentations and interview techniques.

That was certainly my takeaway from the 10-week, all-day Saturday course I just completed with Gillian. I became more confident and able to perform on demand, and I saw the same improvement in my colleagues who were from all ages and backgrounds.

Gillian knows her stuff, having cast numerous feature films and TV series, with the likes of Colin Farrell, Cillian Murphy and Fiona Shaw, as well as casting for Ireland's big commercial companies like Guinness and Vodafone.

If you have someone in your life who wants to make an impression – on camera or off – try one of Gillian's Film Acting courses starting this January. You also complete the course with a professional headshot and showreel. And it's great fun too!

What's more, you can buy gift vouchers – so it could make a very special Christmas gift."

Email dublincentralschoolofacting@gmail.com, visit dublincentralschoolofacting.com or call 087 261 9718 for more

Gillian teaching Kevin her craft. Photo credit: Keith Dixon