“ I cannot recommend Griffith College enough. I completed studies for all exams with them. For the last number of exams, I opted for the e-learning study mode. In particular, I must give great praise to Aongus O’Grady, the lecturer for the AFM exam. The level of preparation he puts into lectures is on another level to any lecturer or teacher I have had. I would dare to say if it was a different lecturer I may not have done so well. ”

ACCA High Achiever

I studied with Griffith using their e-learning platform. The on-demand lectures offered great flexibility and suited me as a student who is working full time. My lecturer, Reg Callanan, kept the classes fun while still delivering the material in an easy to follow comprehensive manner. The communication channels with lecturers are always open and any questions I had were promptly answered. Learning materials were delivered to my door and were easy to work with and study. I hope to study with Griffith for my final ACCA exams because of how helpful they were and how easy they make it to actually enjoy studying!

Colm Fahy, CPA

I would like to thank my lecturer Aongus for his help and support in passing the CPA Strategic Corporate Finance exam in April 2019. During the study year, he showed a great depth of knowledge in delivering the course and ensured that all the important areas were covered comprehensively and left little to chance. Then when the exam turned out to be an extremely challenging one he went over and beyond to support myself in a timely and professional manner.

Michael Baker, ACCA High Achiever

Having worked in the sports industry for ten years, I made a decision to pursue a career in accountancy. After looking into the qualifications available, I chose ACCA due to its clear pathway to qualification, flexibility and variety of study options available. As a mature student with a young family, Griffith College has proven to be an excellent choice in helping to achieve my goals, leading to passing six exams in the first year. The e-Learning option is excellent, the live lectures are well structured and all relevant study material is received in a timely manner. Tutors are always approachable and on hand to answer any queries and information is very clear. I would recommend Griffith Collage as a study provider for the ACCA qualification
